

Celebrating the Official Launch of the McEwen Centre for Regenerative Medicine

October 2006 saw the launch of the McEwen Centre for Regenerative Medicine with renowned humanitarian and visionary Sir Bob Geldof. Driven by the potential of stem cells in harnessing the power of the body to heal itself, Dr. Gordon Keller, a pioneer in stem cell research and the Centre's new Director along with a stellar team of scientists and clinicians are working to remap disease and transform the lives of millions.

Broadcast Coverage

- CityNews: Bob Geldof In T.O. Boosting Stem Cell Research:
http://www.citynews.ca/news/news_4733.aspx
- CBC News: Stem cell research centre attracts leading scientist back to Canada
: <http://www.cbc.ca/canada/toronto/story/2006/10/25/keller-stem-cells.html>
- CTV News: Bob Geldof helps open Toronto research centre:
http://www.ctv.ca/servlet/ArticleNews/story/CTVNews/20061026/geldof_toronto_centre_061026/20061026?hub=Canada